

Photoland

To commemorate the Kickoff (FVCLand), a videotape and photographs were created. The following gallery is offered courtesy of photographers Sherry Rollman (FEB), Daphne Dixon (Social Security Administration) and Bob Burnett (Combined Federal Campaign).

FVC Coordinator Andrea Winkler (right) welcomes a volunteer organization representative to the Kickoff.

The Abraham Lincoln High School Folkloric Dancers are the first group to entertain at the Kickoff.

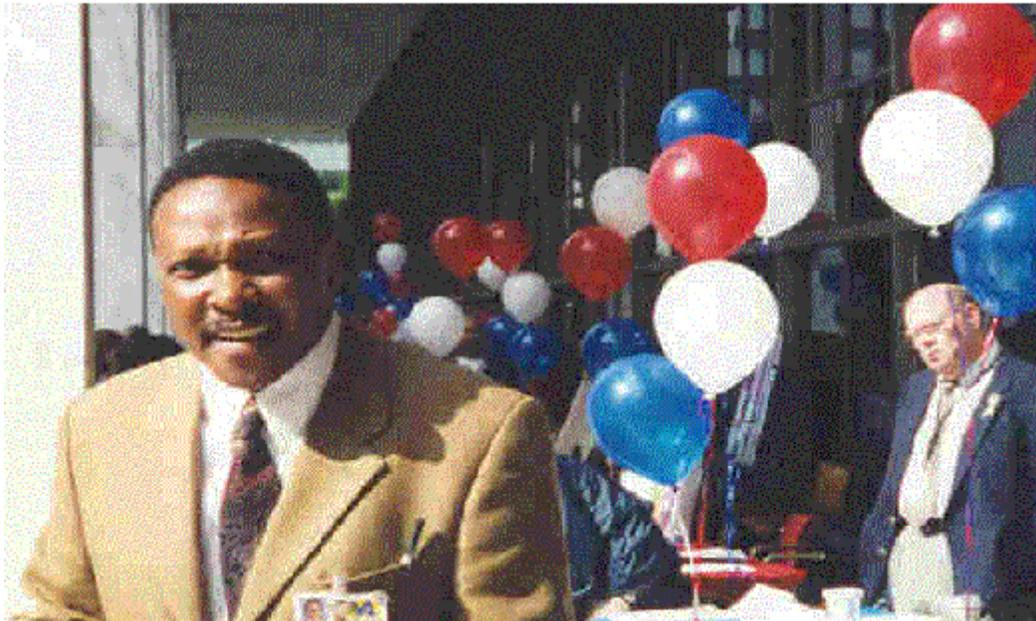

Ginny Ryback (in red) of the San Pedro Volunteer Center signs up a record number of new volunteers at the Kickoff.

A Wildlife Waystation volunteer discusses opportunities with a Kickoff guest, while Yuma, the Coati, enjoys the Kickoff from the safety of her cage visible in the background.

Kickoff Entertainment Manager Al Williams (Department of Veterans Affairs) takes a breather near the balloon-decorated tables of the volunteer organizations.

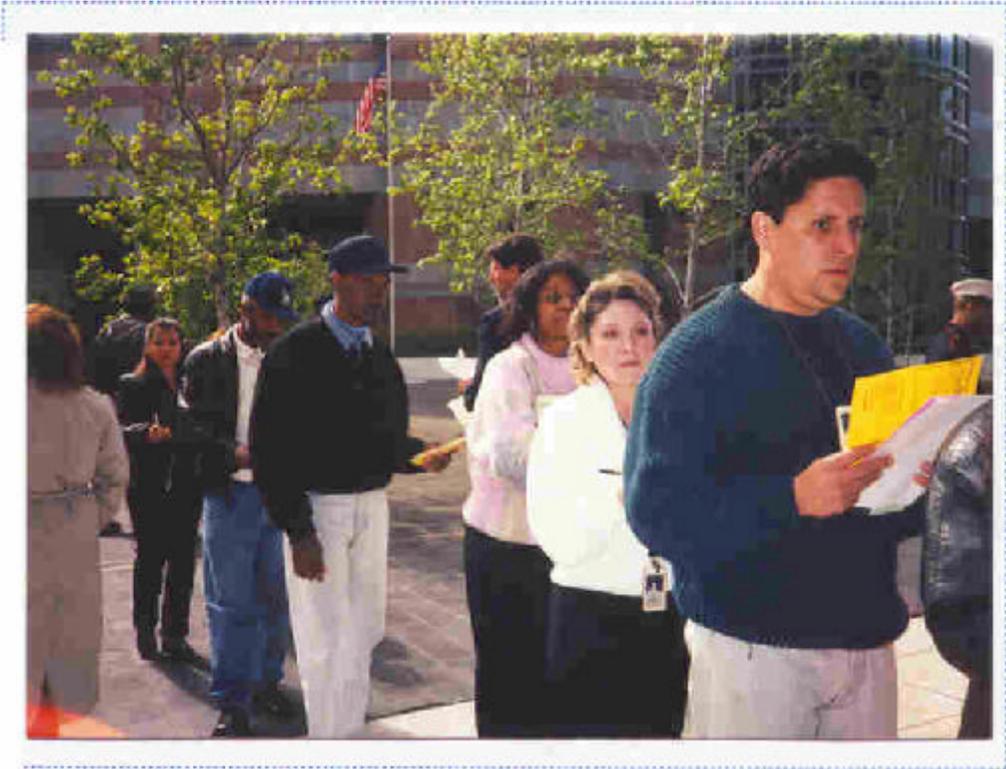

Federal employees investigate volunteer opportunities with volunteer organization representatives.

The Roosevelt High School Singers and Dancers entertained Kickoff participants with Salsa & Mariachi music.

Current and new Federal volunteers wait in line patiently to obtain their free & coveted T-Shirts.

Wearing their FVC T-shirts, the T-Shirt Team (left to right), Julie Gonzalez (INS), Sheryl Leverette, Manager (GSA), & Daphne Dixon (SSA) bask in the glow of a volunteer job well done.